

NEBRASKA
4-H SHOOTING SPORTS
ARCHERY

LEVEL I - WRITTEN EXAM

NAME _____ ID# _____ DATE _____

- T F 1. Since a bow doesn't shoot as far as a gun, it can be treated like a toy.
- T F 2. Never point an arrow at anything you do not intend to shoot.
- T F 3. Always be sure that all archery equipment is in perfect working condition and free from damage before it is used.
- T F 4. When you nock an arrow your bow is considered loaded .
- T F 5. You can safely use your archery equipment when you are fatigued, distracted, or under the influence of any drug.
- T F 6. On an archery firing line, you can retrieve your arrows as soon as you're done shooting.
- T F 7. The person in charge of the firing line is called the chief range officer.
- T F 8. You can shoot practice arrows before the range officer gives the command to commence firing.
- T F 9. When a dropped arrow falls beyond reach of the firing line, a cease fire should be called by the range officer.
- T F 10. When the range officer calls cease fire , nocked and drawn arrows should be let down.
- T F 11. When shooting with target tips the area in front and behind the target is not important.
- T F 12. A bow should be considered as dangerous as any firearm.