NEBRASKA STATE FAIR 4-H LIVESTOCK SHOW ETHICS AFFIDAVIT AND STATEMENT OF DISCLOSURE

Youth livestock producers understand they have an obligation to be a responsible food producer. All market animals will enter the food chain and become edible products for the consuming public. Dairy animals may be producing milk that will enter the food chain.

We, the undersigned, certify that we have read and in consideration for being permitted to exhibit at the event, agree and consent to abide by the rules of competition including the National Code of Show Ring Ethics as printed in the premium book. We agree to the condition that these entries (identified below) and/or the milk from these entries may be screened for violative residues.

We certify that these animals have not received any non-approved drug(s). We certify that our entries are not within any withdrawal time relative to the administration of any legal drug, vaccine or other substance UNLESS NOTED BELOW. We certify that we have completed the requirements for a Food Animal Quality Assurance program or test for this year. If exhibiting beef or sheep, we attest, that to the best of our knowledge, the finishing ration fed to animals under our ownership does not contain "prohibited" mammalian protein (i.e. ruminant meat & bone meal). We further certify the information provided below is correct and accurate.

If violations are detected, we will not challenge the validity of testing or sampling procedures, and we will be subjected to penalties determined by show management.

GROOMING AFFIDAVIT

From the "2004 Nebraska State Fair 4-H Premium Book": "Clipping, trimming or blocking of livestock by anyone other than exhibitors will not be permitted at this show. This means that exhibitors can help each other, but individuals other than exhibitors cannot help. Grooming an animal other than clipping, trimming or blocking (e.g. brushing, washing, etc.) may be done by exhibitors and brothers, sisters, or parents of the exhibitors."

We, the undersigned, have read and agree to abide by this grooming rule and will accept the consequences if found in violation of this rule.
