

Ambassadors' Dress Code

Ambassadors are expected to dress in a manner befitting young men and women. Modesty, neatness, well groomed and practicality will be the guiding principles.

Ambassadors are not to wear torn (intentional or otherwise) or sloppy clothing. Tank tops, muscle shirts, bare midriffs, low necklines, sundresses, and tight or otherwise revealing clothing will not be allowed. This applies to all spandex fashions. T-shirts with negative, outlandish, disrespectful messages or pictures will not be allowed. Ambassadors are to have no visible tattoos and no body piercing except for females which are limited to two.

Ambassadors may wear shorts and skirts of modest style and length. Shorts, skirts and skirts may be no shorter than 3" above the knee. Females - Blouses/shirts must be tucked in when low-rise slacks/jeans/skirts/ are worn. Males – Casual or dress slacks should be worn with shirt tails tucked in. Footwear – clean, neat, shined and appropriate. No flip flops.

Blazers should be cleaned and pressed and ready to wear at appropriate occasions.

When serving as a National 4-H Shooting Sports Ambassador, you need to remember that you are representing the 4-H Shooting Sports youth to the public and you need to make the best impression possible.

“It is the policy of the National 4-H Shooting Sports Program, that no person shall be subjected to discrimination on the grounds of race, color, gender, religion, national origin, sexual orientation, age, marital or parental status or disability.”
